

House Keeping Thrift

You Are Practicing Real Thrift When You Save Needless Work

You waste time when you clean, dust and polish floors and woodwork the old way. That is three operations.

With the O-Cedar Polish Mop you do these three things at one time. In addition, your floors are cleaner, brighter and prettier than ever before. As you save work, you save time and money.

In many homes the O-Cedar Polish Mop has solved the servant problem. In others it pays for itself in the saving of brooms alone.

O-Cedar Mop

Polish Mop

Collects all the dust and dirt from everywhere and at the same time gives a high, durable luster.

Ask your dealer for the new Battuship Model O-Cedar Polish Mop. Your money refunded if you are not delighted with the work it does.

GEN. GUY CARLETON MAKES IT EASY FOR CONVICTED MEN

Spartanburg's Commander Tempers Justice With Mercy.

(Special to The Evening World.)
SPARTANBURG, S. C., July 2.—Justice tempered with mercy seems to be the rule of Brig. Gen. Carleton, commanding the provisional depot for corps and army troops. He does not hesitate to reduce the sentence imposed by court martial in his opinion the sentences are too severe, and he has even set aside some sentences entirely on the ground that there had been improper convictions. Private Fred L. Packard, Company E, First Pioneer Infantry, was convicted of the charge of desertion and of making his escape while under arrest, and sentenced to ten years' imprisonment. Gen. Carleton reduced the sentence to one year.

Private Lee R. Pickles, Company B, Tenth Pioneer Infantry, was tried by a court martial several weeks ago on the charge of assault, convicted and sentenced to three years' imprisonment. The sentence of the court was set aside by Gen. Carleton on the ground that the evidence introduced at the trial was insufficient to warrant a conviction. Last week Pickles was again tried by a court martial on the charge of desertion and forging furloughs and convicted and given a sentence of four years. Gen. Carleton has reduced the sentence to four months, due to irregularities in the trial.
Major U. S. Kann, specialist in charge of the X-ray department of the base hospital, has been transferred to Camp Meade, Md. He is succeeded in the work here by First Lieut. H. D. Wolfe.

Borden's Evaporated Milk

"Certainly we have Borden's Evaporated Milk"

Your grocer's most particular customers use Borden's Evaporated Milk for all kinds of cooking—wherever a recipe calls for milk.

They know the name Borden is a sign of quality and purity in milk and milk products.

A few cans of Borden's Evaporated Milk always on your pantry shelves will solve your milk problems. It is pure, rich, whole milk, with part of the water removed in the modern, convenient available form. It is economical to use.

See C. Bailey, Lecturer on Home Economics

Crumb Pancakes

1 cupful Borden's Evaporated Milk
1 cupful cold water
2 teaspoonfuls baking powder
1 teaspoonful salt

Let the crumbs stand for an hour or two in the evaporated milk and water combined. Then beat in the remaining ingredients, and cook on an aluminum or soap stone griddle if possible to avoid the use of fat, in accordance with the wishes of the Food Administration. Serve with syrup or with melted jelly.
